BIG QUESTION DAY

- Christianity - which believe in living according to the loving nature of God as revealed by Jesus' life, death and resurrection, the Bible and prayer, helped in this task by the Holy Spirit
- Hinduism - which learns how to be reunited with God – of whom all living beings are eternally part – and learn this through study, devotion, prayer and service to others
- Islam - which believes to submit life to the will of Allah, as revealed to the Prophet M
- Uhammad through the Qur'an and to do so through a declaration of faith, regular prayer, almsgiving, fasting and pilgrimage
- Judaism - which believes that one should live according to God's laws, as revealed by Moses, the most important of which is to believe in one God and to learn to love God through study, through prayer, through good deeds and by celebrating the yearly cycle of holy days
- Sikhism - which believes that there is only one God and that He is without form. They call their God 'Waheguru' and believe that He is everywhere, created everything, has no fear or hatred, was not born and does not die. Sikhs regard God as close to each person and He is often therefore called 'Father'.

All year groups follow the Diocesan Syllabus for Religious Education in the Diocese of Peterborough and the Understanding Christianity Syllabus.
